

Sector Scheme 12D T6 Training Course Registered Lead Traffic Management Operative Training Course

Duration	Two Days
Group Size	Maximum 8 delegates x 1 Instructor Maximum 12 delegates x 2 Instructors
Who Should Attend	All Registered Traffic Management Operatives (RTMO) as described in Sector Scheme Document 12D who wish to become a Registered Lead Traffic Management Operative (RLTMO).
Course Aims	To provide delegates with the necessary underpinning technical knowledge and skill to supervise a gang or gangs (as appropriate).
Course Objectives	On completion of the session delegates will: - <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Have a working knowledge of National Highway Sector Schemes.• Realise the importance and relevance of health & safety at work.• Have a working knowledge of the relevant codes of practice and other associated documentation when involved in traffic management.• Provide evidence that they understand the differences between Chapter and the Safety at Street Works and Road Works (red book) and how these apply.• Understand the risk assessment process and be able to carry out risk assessments & method statements on works involving traffic management.• Be able to demonstrate their knowledge of their Supervisory responsibilities.• Have the ability to assess the suitability of equipment for the use on the highway.• Be able to monitor site and recommend action as condition change.• Be able ascertain when management intervention is required.
Certification	On completion all delegates will be required to undertake an examination consisting two test papers which carries a 75% pass mark. Lantra Awards (the national awarding body) will issue a card to successful candidates. Refresher training is required every 5 years to keep your card valid.